CME Accreditation and Application Process

The ACCME "accredits" organizations that may "certify" educational activities for CME credit. "Certification" requires that the educational activity complies with the standards ("Essentials") established by the ACCME for the granting of CME credit. "Accreditation" of an organization by the ACCME requires that the organization assures that the educational activities it "certifies" for CME credit comply with the "Essentials."

Rosalind Franklin University of Medicine & Science is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

For application materials, questions, or concerns, please contact Elsa Kurien, the Director of CME by phone (847-578-3341), fax (847-578-3320), or via email at elsa.kurien@rosalindfranklin.edu.
